DETAILED ACTION

1. An examination of this application reveals that applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed. Applicant is advised to secure the services of a registered patent attorney or agent to prosecute the application, since the value of a patent is largely dependent upon skilled preparation and prosecution. The Office cannot aid in selecting an attorney or agent.

Applicant is advised of the availability of the publication "Attorneys and Agents Registered to Practice Before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office." This publication is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Danschikov et al (US Patent 5,492,657).

Danschikov et al discloses a method for processing rubber products. At col. 1, lines 22-29, Danschikov et al discloses recycling solid waste materials such as used tires from automobiles. At col. 2, lines 1-9, Danschikov et al discloses pulverizing such used rubber and then using the pulverized rubber in the soles of shoes or the like.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. The following claim is drafted by the examiner and considered to distinguish patentably over the art of record in this application, and is presented to applicant for consideration:

1. A method for recycling used automobile tires into shoes comprising:
  - a) cutting a sole portion of a used tire directly with mechanical knives into a specified size of a shoe sole;
  - b) cutting a heel portion directly out of a sidewall portion of a used tire;
  - c) adhesively bonding the sole portion to the heel portion;
  - d) stitching the sole portion to an upper portion to form a shoe.
